This is not linked to any personally identifiable information, except as necessary to prevent fraud or abuse on our system. Our Site uses cookies to keep track of your visits. This Site also contains links to other websites. Unfortunately, we are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such sites.

Compliance with Laws and Law Enforcement

We cooperate with government and law enforcement officials and private parties to enforce and comply with the law. We will disclose any information about you to government or law enforcement officials or private parties as we, in our sole discretion, believe necessary or appropriate to respond to claims and legal process (including without limitation subpoenas), to protect our property and rights or the property and rights of a third party, to protect the safety of the public or any person, or to prevent or stop activity we consider to be illegal or unethical. We will also share your information to the extent necessary to comply with ICANN's rules, regulations and policies.

Third Party Service Providers

We will only share information about you that is necessary for the third party to provide the requested service. In the event that we use third party advertising companies to serve ads on our behalf, these companies may employ cookies and action tags (also known as single pixel gift or web beacons) to measure advertising effectiveness.

Supplementation of Information

In order to provide certain services to you, we may on occasion supplement the personal information you submit to us with information from third party sources (e.g., service providers, or the United States Postal Service). We do this to enhance our ability to serve you.

Charitable Sites

We may provide you with the opportunity to participate in contributing to charitable sites. If you choose to participate, you will be requested to provide information by the third party. Participation in these third party charitable sites is completely voluntary and you therefore have a choice whether or not to disclose the requested information. The requested information typically includes contact information (such as name and address), and credit card information. Information is gathered by a third party service provider not by our company.
